HOWARD P. MAGALIFF, Chapter 7 Trustee of ALLWAYS EAST TRANSPORTATION, INC.,

Adv. Pro. No. -

Plaintiff,

v.

MARLAINA KOLLER a/k/a MARLAINA CROES
and PHOENIX TRANSPORTATION SERVICES, INC.,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Howard P. Magaliff, as Chapter 7 Trustee (the “Trustee” or “Plaintiff”) of the bankruptcy estate of ALLWAYS EAST TRANSPORTATION, INC. (the “Debtor”), by and through his undersigned counsel, Archer & Greiner, P.C., for his complaint (the “Complaint”) against Marlaina Koller a/k/a Marlaina Croes (“Marlaina”) and Phoenix Transportation Services, Inc. (“Phoenix,” each a “Defendant,” together, the “Defendants”), respectfully alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THIS ACTION

1. This proceeding is brought by the Trustee, on behalf of the Debtor's estate, seeking judgment against the Defendants for, among other things, breach of fiduciary duty, corporate waste, conversion and recovery of payments that unjustly enriched the Defendants. The Trustee also seeks to avoid and recover fraudulent transfers and preference payments made during the one year period before the commencement of the Debtor's bankruptcy case and improper post-petition payments. This proceeding also seeks an order expunging and disallowing any and all claims filed by the Defendants, if any, against the Debtor.

2. The Debtor was an owner and operator of a fleet of approximately 300 buses and other transport vehicles that provided transportation services for public and private schools, from pre-K through colleges and universities.

3. In or about 2012, Marlaina's mother, as the sole-owner and president of the Debtor, began to transition the operations of the company to Marlaina, who became the vice-president.

4. Not later than 2012, the company began to suffer financial difficulties as a result of overexpansion, among other reasons, and began to select which payments it would make as it could not satisfy all of its obligations. By January 1, 2013, the Debtor was not satisfying all of its obligations to its creditors, was insolvent and was not able to meet its obligations as they became due.

5. From the time Marlaina became involved in the operations of the Debtor in or about 2012, Marlaina breached her fiduciary duties and, among other things, used the Debtor as her own personal piggy bank diverting millions of dollars from the Debtor's accounts for herself and other insiders both before and after the Petition Date (defined below).

6. Although the Debtor's books and records were left in shambles, requiring the Trustee's professionals to sift through limited financial documentation to understand the Debtor's financial picture, as a result of the efforts made by the Trustee's professionals, it became clear to the Trustee and his professionals that substantial payments were made by the Debtor to benefit or satisfy personal obligations of the Debtor's insiders and others, which transfers provided no benefit to the Debtor.

7. For instance, there are numerous charges on the Debtor's books and records and documents provided to the Trustee that show transfers to, among other entities, casinos, a cemetery, family members and their businesses, restaurants and other entertainment that do not appear to have any connection to the Debtor's business or are not reflected as valid business expenses on the books and records. In addition, there are large charges on credit cards and significant cash withdrawals that the Debtor's books and records do not reflect, which were used by the Debtor for valid business purposes.

8. Moreover, Marlaina allowed the company to operate on a significant cash basis. This enabled cash to be transferred to Marlaina and others without proper repayment or controls.

9. Further, upon information and belief, during the times the Debtor was insolvent and even after the Petition Date, the Debtor operated for the benefit of insiders and their family members, with undocumented lump sum transfers and wages paid to non-working or grossly over-compensated family members.

10. The books and records and documents provided to the Trustee reflect that the Debtor appears to have obtained more cash than necessary to pay the employees, but did not adequately document or track such additional cash.

11. Thus, at the time the Debtor was insolvent and/or as a consequence whereof the Debtor became insolvent, the Debtor caused or made transfers to the Defendant that are avoidable as fraudulent transfers.

12. To the extent that the transfers were on account of antecedent debt, certain of the transfers before the commencement of the Debtor's bankruptcy case are recoverable as preferential payments.

13. The Debtor also made significant post-petition transfers made to or for the benefit of Marlaina, her family and friends.

14. The Trustee also has claims against Phoenix, a company in which Marlaina has an ownership interest.

15. Although Phoenix purchased certain of the Debtor's assets during the Debtor's chapter 11 case pursuant to Court orders, the Debtor improperly paid certain of Phoenix's expenses, including payroll and other vendor expenses for which the Debtor had no obligation.

16. In addition, upon information and belief, the Debtor and Phoenix diverted accounts receivable that were due to be paid to the Debtor to Phoenix.

17. This adversary proceeding seeks to, among other things, avoid recoverable transfers for the benefit of the Debtor's estate and its creditors, and to recover the value of damages inflicted on the Debtor's estate by the Defendants.

PARTIES

The Debtor, Marlaina and Her Family

18. On April 28, 2016 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”), Case No. 16-22589 (RDD).

19. The Debtor’s principal place of business was New York State.

20. Judith Koller is the sole-owner of the Debtor.

21. Judith Koller is the mother of Marlaina.

22. In or about 2012, Marlaina began to run the Debtor’s operations.

23. In or about 2013, Marlaina became the vice president of the Debtor.

24. Edward Koller is the brother of the Marlaina.

25. Upon information and belief, Marlaina was married to Vincent Gurgigno during the period January 1, 2013 through the Petition Date.

26. According to the Declaration of Marlaina Koller Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2 in Support of Debtor’s Chapter 11 Petition, filed with the Court, the Debtor operated from the following three leased premises (a) 870 Nepperhan Avenue, Yonkers, New York 10702, (b) 215 Lake Avenue, Yonkers, New York 10703, (c) 38 Route 9, Fishkill, New York, 12524.

The Trustee

27. By Motion dated, November 22, 2017, the Office of the United States Trustee (the “UST”) sought entry of an order converting the Debtor’s chapter 11 case to a case under chapter 7. In its motion, the UST alleged that the Debtor’s operating reports revealed evidence of gross mismanagement in the form of excessive cash withdrawals and multiple suspect Paypal transactions and payments to vendors such as Apple Itunes, GetRentToOwn.com, Outdoor Dogs and clothing stores on Ebay. Moreover, in its motion, the UST alleged that the Debtor was failing to fulfill its fiduciary duty to remit trust funds to the appropriate taxing authorities.

28. By Order dated December 7, 2017 [Docket No. 338], the Court granted the motion of the United States Trustee and converted the Debtor's chapter 11 case to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

29. The Trustee was appointed as the chapter 7 interim trustee of the Debtor on December 12, 2017, and has accepted his appointment, duly qualified and is acting as the trustee.

30. The Trustee entered into tolling agreements by which the statute of limitations was extended to commence various actions, including actions against Marlaina and Phoenix.

The Defendants

Marlaina

31. Upon information and belief, Marlaina is a resident of New York.

32. As set forth above, Marlaina was the vice-president of the Debtor at the time of the transfers and breaches for which the Trustee seeks avoidance and recovery.

Phoenix

33. Phoenix is a New York corporation that was incorporated on January 27, 2017.

34. Phoenix identified "M M M" as its Chief Executive Officer when Phoenix incorporated.

35. Upon information and belief, "M M M" is Marlaina.

36. Phoenix owns and operates a fleet of buses and other transport vehicles that provides transportation services.

37. Phoenix is owned in whole, or in part, by Marlaina.

38. Phoenix acquired certain of the Debtor's assets consisting of certain customer contracts and vehicles pursuant to the (a) Order (i) Authorizing the Sale of Certain of the Debtor's Assets Consisting of Certain Customer Contracts and Vehicles Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, Interests, and Encumbrances, (ii) Granting the Successful Bidders Good Faith Purchaser Status, (iii) Waiving the Fourteen-day Stay of Sale Order, and (iv) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 235] and (b) Order Authorizing and Approving Private Sale of the Debtor's De Minimis Residual Assets, Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, and Encumbrances Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 363 (B) and (F) [Docket No. 275] (together, the "Sale Orders").

39. The Sale Orders recognized Marlaina as an owner of Phoenix.

40. Upon information and belief, Marlaina operates Phoenix and is an officer of Phoenix.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

41. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157, 1331 and 1334.

42. This adversary proceeding is brought pursuant to, inter alia, 11 U.S.C. §§ 544, 547, 548, 549 and 550, Rule 7001(1) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), §§ 273, 274, 275, 276, 276-a, 278 and 279 of the New York Debtor and Creditor Law (the "NYDCL"), §§ 715 and 720 of the New York Business Corporation Law (the "NYBCL").

43. This proceeding is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

44. Venue of this action is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409.

45. Pursuant to Rule 7008 of the Bankruptcy Rules, the Trustee consents to the entry of final orders or judgment by this Court.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Debtor's Insolvency

46. At least as early as January 1, 2013, the Debtor was insolvent.

47. At least as early as January 1, 2013, the Debtor was not paying all of its bills and invoices as they came due.

48. As of the Petition Date, according to the Debtor's schedule of assets and liabilities filed with the Court [Docket No. 46], the Debtor's assets were $3,127,052.10 with liabilities of $8,979,596.28.

49. According to the Debtor's statement of financial affairs filed with the Court on July 22, 2016, as of the Petition Date, nine court cases were pending against the Debtor, with certain cases dating back to 2012.

50. The Debtor's claims register reflects more than $24 million of claims were filed against the Debtor, including more than $15 million of pre-petition claims.

51. As such, the Debtor's books and records grossly understated the true financial woes of the Debtor.

52. The Debtor's insolvency and failure to pay its obligations as they became due was an ongoing problem for years before the Petition Date.

53. Upon information and belief, any capital the Debtor had at the end of 2012 was not adequate to operate the business at the time.

54. Nevertheless, the Debtor sought to expand its business in or about 2012 and left itself without the ability to satisfy its ongoing obligations.

55. For instance, the Debtor failed to pay an insurance premium to Seneca

Insurance Company in 2012.

56. The failure to pay the insurance premium resulted in the policy being cancelled and a lawsuit being commenced against the Debtor.

57. The Debtor also defaulted on a settlement agreement with Hudson Valley Bank, N.A. resulting in one or more of the Debtor's bank accounts being restrained in August 2012.

58. On May 12, 2017, the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance filed a proof of claim asserting a claim in the amount of $1,375,533.35, including amounts due dating back to September 2011.

59. According to Claim No. 7-5 filed by the Department of Treasury – Internal Revenue Service, the Debtor owed more than $64,000 on account of FICA taxes not paid for the tax period September 30, 2012 and more than $330,000 for the tax period September 30, 2014.

60. The Debtor also failed to make lease payments under a master lease agreement with Nations Fund I, Inc., resulting in the termination of that agreement in 2014.

61. Notwithstanding the Debtor's financial woes and inability to satisfy its obligations as they became due, upon information and belief, the Defendant used the Debtor as a personal piggy bank for herself and other insiders deepening the debtor's insolvency and funneling money out of the Debtor's estate that could have been used to pay the Debtor's legitimate creditors.

62. Moreover, upon information and belief, the Defendant continued to funnel money out of the Debtor after the Petition Date, while at the same time, failing to, among other things, pay tax obligations.

Gross Mismanagement and Breach of Fiduciary Duties

63. Marlaina contributed to the gross mismanagement of the Debtor.

64. Marlaina abdicated her responsibility for, and oversight of, the Debtor by taking the following actions herself or failing to supervise the Debtor's employees and its operations, and permitted the Debtor to, among other things:

- a. Make vendor payments, substantially with cash or checks without adequate control for cash received by the Debtor.
- b. Make payroll and other payments to Marlaina and other family members "off the books."
- c. Borrow sums of money for operations of the Debtor or otherwise, without formal written agreements.
- d. Purchase personal items and paid for personal expenses of Marlaina, and others, out of money that belonged to or was intended for use by the Debtor.
- e. Make payroll payments to Marlaina's mother, Judith Koller, at a time she was not performing her duties as president of the Debtor.
- f. Open lines of credit and borrow money from individuals, vendors, credit card accounts and hard money lenders in the name of the Debtor to support operations and/or for other non-Debtor-related uses.
- g. Fail to maintain and preserve sufficient books and records.
- h. Maintain incomplete financial books and records or a proper payroll management system.

65. Marlaina breached her duties to the Debtor by, among other things:

- a. Failing to supervise, the Debtor and the Debtor's books and records, and took no steps to improve the control over or access to the Debtor and the Debtor's books and records.
- b. Exercising no, or insufficient, control or oversight over the day-to-day activities of the Debtor.
- c. Exercising no, or insufficient, control or oversight over the payroll activities of the Debtor.
- d. Exercising no, or insufficient, control or oversight over tax activities of the Debtor.
- e. Exercising no, or insufficient, control or oversight over the payment of rent and compliance with the Debtor's lease.
- f. Exercising no, or insufficient, control or oversight over the hiring and services provided by Lori Jackman and Jackman Ventures as accountant and keeper of the Debtor's books and records.

- g. Providing financials to third parties prepared by Lori Jackman as certified public accountant, when Marlaina knew or should have known that Lori Jackman was not a certified public accountant.
- h. Providing inaccurate information to third parties.
- i. Exercising no, or insufficient, control over the Debtor's funds and allowing funds to be used for purposes other than business purposes.
- j. Exercising no, or insufficient, control or oversight over the Debtor, such that the Debtor operated on a virtual cash basis without proper accounting and numerous lending arrangements without proper documentation.
- k. Failing to pay withholding and other taxes to the government.

66. Marlaina failed to properly withhold taxes and make required payments to taxing authorities and regulatory agencies, resulting in the IRS filing Claim No. 246 in the amount of $5,280,664.42.

67. Marlaina failed to properly pay taxes to the State of New York, resulting in the State of New York Department of Labor filing Claim No. 239-1 in the amount of $664,083.00.

68. Marlaina benefited from her gross mismanagement of the Debtor.

69. Marlaina withdrew and diverted assets belonging to the Debtor.

70. Marlaina utilized Wink Check Cashing Corp. ("Wink") to cash checks belonging to the Debtor.

71. During the Period January 1, 2013 through the Petition Date, more than $18,200,000 in cash was transferred from Wink to the Debtor in exchange for checks from the Debtor.

72. Although some of the cash received from Wink was used to fund payroll, a significant amount of cash received from Wink is not accounted for in the Debtor's books and records.

73. For example, during the period October 1, 2015 through March 31, 2016, $4,024,154 in cash was transferred from Wink, however, $2,220,412 of such cash is not accounted for in the Debtor's books and records.

74. As the Debtor's books and records were in shambles, the Trustee estimates that more than $10 million received from Wink was not used to pay for payroll and is not accounted for in the Debtor's books and records.

75. Upon information and belief and based on the lack of records not less than $1,028,183.37 was used to pay personal expenses of Marlaina's family and others or were transferred to Marlaina.

76. In addition, during the period January 1, 2013 through the Petition Date, more than $1,720,000 in cash was withdrawn from the Debtor's bank accounts at the Debtor's bank.

77. The Debtor's books and records do not reflect the use for all such cash withdrawn from the Debtor's bank accounts.

78. In addition to cash withdrawals from the Debtor's bank accounts, additional cash withdrawals were made using the Debtor's ATM cards aggregating more than $98,000.00.

79. The location of these ATM withdrawals include, among other places Empire City Casino, Radisson Casino Aruba, Marriott Casino Aruba, Alahambra Casino Aruba, Caesars Atlantic City and Harrah's Atlantic City.

80. The Debtor's books and records do not reflect the uses of the cash received from the ATM withdrawals.

81. Although certain of the bank and ATM cash withdrawals may have been used to pay legitimate obligations of the Debtor, the Debtor's books and records do not reflect these funds were used for legitimate corporate purposes.

82. Upon information and belief, the funds were withdrawn and kept by Marlaina or other family members.

83. Due to the failure of the Debtor and Marlaina, as an officer of the Debtor, to maintain and preserve books and records, there is no way to fully calculate the amounts Marlaina diverted to herself.

84. Upon information and belief, more than $11,800,000 of cash is not accounted for in the Debtor's books and records (the "Unaccounted for Cash").

85. Marlaina also diverted receivables owed to the Debtor.

86. For example, on May 19, 2015 the Debtor paid a legal retainer to the law firm of Goldschmidt & Genovese, LLP for Marlaina's personal representation.

87. The retainer was not fully exhausted and $10,724.50 was returned by check dated November 2, 2015 directly to Marlaina Koller.

88. The Debtor's books and records do not reflect the return of the retainer from Goldschmidt & Genovese, LLP.

89. Upon information and belief, Marlaina also collected cash receivables and did not deposit such funds into the Debtor's accounts.

90. For example, Randy Wetzel paid more than $15,000 in cash to Marlaina to pay back a loan he took from the Debtor.

91. The Debtor's books and records do not reflect that Marlaina deposited the money Mr. Wetzel paid back into the Debtor's accounts or otherwise used the payments for the Debtor's business.

92. Marlaina also paid for numerous personal and/or family expenses with the Debtor's credit cards in the name of the Debtor. Examples of vendors paid with the Debtor's credit cards include Victoria Secret, Sephora and flights to and other expenses in Aruba including meals and duty free purchases.

93. An American Express prepaid card initially opened by Judith Koller and linked to the Debtor's bank account, which funded the account with $12,000, was used and debited for ATM transactions which, upon information and belief, was used for personal expenses of Judith Koller, Marlaina and/or her family members. Additionally, the Debtor paid $10,000.00 to pay a personal American Express bill on a card held by Vincent Gurgigno.

94. Marlaina systematically utilized the Debtor to directly pay her and her family's personal expenses.

95. For example, the Debtor transferred at least $22,000.00 to New York Life Insurance for an account the Debtor did not have an obligation to pay.

96. The Debtor transferred $13,000.00 to Ferncliff Cemetery Association on account of a burial plot.

97. Additionally, the Debtor made several payments, aggregating in excess of $197,000 to Wells Fargo Home Mortgage, Inc. for the benefit of Marlaina and/or her family.

98. As set forth below, the additional transfers were made to family members and compensation paid to insiders was excessive.

Transfers to Insider Family Members

99. Based upon a review of the books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, the Debtor made substantial and unsubstantiated transfers to or for the benefit of insider family members and their companies between January 1, 2013 and the Petition Date.

100. During this period, it is clear that the Debtor's principals were looting the Debtor and paying significant personal expenses of the Debtor's insiders, including expenses for personal attorneys, mortgages, cemetery expenses, casino expenses and other entertainment and expenses not related to the Debtor's business.

101. Judith Koller, was the owner and President of the Debtor.

102. Judith Koller benefited from more than $1,700,000 in transfers made to her or for her benefit, including more than $800,000 in payroll payments paid to her between January 1, 2013 and the Petition Date even though she delegated all of her duties to Marlaina.

103. Moreover, during this period, in addition to the Debtor's President and Vice-President, other family members including Edward Koller were receiving substantial payments and having expenses paid for them.

104. For instance, Edward Koller benefited from more than $300,000.00 in transfers between January 1, 2013 and the Petition Date.

The Marlaina Transfers

105. As set forth above, during the time the Debtor was insolvent, between January 1, 2013 and continuing after the Petition Date, the Debtor made transfers to or for the benefit of Marlaina in an aggregate amount of more than $1,400,000 plus amounts that may be revealed in discovery (collectively, the "Identifiable Marlaina Transfers", individually a "Marlaina Transfer").

106. In addition to the Identifiable Marlaina Transfers, as set forth above, there is more than $11,800,000 of unaccounted cash.

107. The Debtor conducted a significant amount of business in cash and cash equivalents that was not always properly tracked and, upon information and belief, was used to pay Marlaina's personal and family expenses.

108. Upon information and belief, some, if not all, of the Unaccounted for Cash was paid to or for the benefit of Marlaina.

109. A summary of the Marlaina Transfers that are known are set forth on Exhibits A and B attached hereto and are incorporated herein by reference.

110. Based upon a review of the Debtor's books and records and documents provided to the Trustee, Marlaina was not a creditor of the Debtor, other than payroll she may have been entitled to receive.

111. According to the books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, an aggregate amount of $410,699.99 was paid by the Debtor to Marlaina including $175,100.00 pre-petition (the "Pre-Petition Payroll Transfers") and $235,599.99 post-petition (the "Post-Petition Payroll Transfers") despite her lack of supervision or other services to the Debtor.

112. Marlaina's payroll increased from $62,400.00 in 2015 to more than $213,899.99 in 2016 (including more than $142,000.00 paid after the Petition Date).

113. According to the Debtor's books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, the Debtor, under the control of Marlaina, entered into a Promissory Note, Security Agreement, Stock Pledge and Personal Guarantees, dated January 30, 2015, with Nadem Sayegh (the "Sayegh Note").

114. Marlaina was a personal guarantor on the Sayegh Note.

115. Full payment on the Sayegh Loan was due on or before February 28, 2015.

116. The Sayegh Loan was not repaid in accordance with its terms.

117. Portions of the Sayegh Loan were paid after the due date, including $115,000.00 that was paid during the one-year period before the Petition Date.

118. The amount paid on the Sayegh Loan is avoidable as preference payment made for the benefit of Marlaina who was a guarantor on the Sayegh Loan.

119. Upon information and belief, the Transfers and other payments in favor of Marlaina were a way to funnel money out of the Debtor, at the expense of the Debtor's creditors.

120. Marlaina's gross mismanagement and transfers to or for her benefit did not stop when the Debtor commenced its chapter 11 case.

121. According to monthly operating reports the Debtor increased the salary of Marlaina and her mother during the Chapter 11 case.

122. Despite the Debtor's bankruptcy, the Debtor transferred $757,327.00 to Marlaina and her mother two months before the Debtor's asset sale, at a time when it was clear that the Debtor's business would not continue.

123. Based upon a review of the Debtor's books and records provided to the Trustee, the Debtor did not receive reasonably equivalent value from Marlaina for the Marlaina Transfers.

124. To the extent that Marlaina acted as the vice president of the Debtor or provided goods or services to the Debtor, the compensation provided was made with actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud the Debtor, as it was greater than the value of the goods or services being provided, was above-market for any labor or goods and was not reasonably equivalent value.

The Phoenix Transfers

125. After the Petition Date, the Debtor transferred to, or for the benefit of, Phoenix, cash or cash equivalents in an aggregate amount of not less than $74,218.74, plus amounts that may be revealed in discovery (collectively, the “Phoenix Transfers”, individually a “Phoenix Transfer”) to Phoenix.

126. The Phoenix Transfers that are known are incorporated herein by reference.

127. The Phoenix Transfers were payments made for payroll and other expenses of Phoenix that were not obligations of the Debtor.

128. Upon information and belief, Phoenix and Marlaina also solicited and re-directed accounts receivables owed to the Debtor, to be paid to Phoenix.

129. The transfers that the Debtor seeks to avoid consist of those set forth on Exhibit C and include such additional cash, cash equivalent payments and other transfers that are not set forth on Exhibit C that may become known through discovery.

First Cause of Action
(Breach of Fiduciary Duty
Pursuant to NYBCL §§ 715 and 720
Against Marlaina)

130. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

131. At all times relevant herein, Marlaina was the vice-president of the Debtor.

132. At all times relevant herein, Marlaina had the obligation to discharge her duties as an officer of the Debtor in good faith and with the care of an ordinarily prudent person in a like position under similar circumstances.

133. Officers have corporate fiduciary duties including the duties of care, loyalty and good faith in the execution of their service as such.

134. At all times relevant herein, Marlaina had the obligation to discharge her duties of care, loyalty and good faith to the Debtor.

135. Marlaina breached her duties as an officer of the Debtor.

136. Marlaina failed to supervise and exercise her responsibility and authority over the activities, operations and reporting of the Debtor.

137. Marlaina failed to assure that the Debtor had proper budget and fiscal controls. Marlaina failed to maintain and ensure that the Debtor maintained proper books and records.

138. Marlaina mismanaged the Debtor's finances and caused the Debtor to operate in a status of insolvency.

139. Marlaina failed to oversee the Debtor's employees and agents.

140. Marlaina enabled the Debtor to be subject to theft and mismanagement by herself, employees and others.

141. Marlaina allowed family members including, among others, herself, Judith Koller and Edward Koller to receive salaries and other payments even when they were not performing services for the Debtor, or in amounts in excess of the fair market value of the services provided.

142. Marlaina permitted the Debtor to pay herself and her family members and make several payments for their personal use, at the expense of the Debtor.

143. Marlaina failed to adequately capitalize the Debtor and failed to take, or delayed taking action to secure additional funding or reduce or manage other expenses, resulting in damages to the Debtor and its creditors.

144. Marlaina failed to ensure that the Debtor complied with applicable laws and regulations.

145. Marlaina neglected, or failed to perform, her duties with respect to management and disposition of the corporate assets in her charge, as set forth herein.

146. Marlaina's conduct or misconduct resulted in waste of the Debtor's corporate assets.

147. Marlaina's commissions and omissions as set forth herein constitute breaches of the duties described herein.

148. Marlaina's breaches of duties resulted in damages to the Debtor's estate and creditors.

149. For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee is entitled to seek to recover from Marlaina, for the benefit of the Debtor's estate, such sum representing not less than $24,234,193.65, which is the amount asserted as claims and administrative expenses against the Debtor's estate.

Second Cause of Action
(Avoidance of Intentional Fraudulent Conveyances
Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A)
Against Marlaina)

150. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

151. Transfers made by the Debtor to or for the benefit of Marlaina were transfers of an interest of the Debtor in property.

152. As set forth on Exhibit A, more than $682,000.00 of transfers were made within two years prior to the Petition Date (the “Two-Year Identifiable Transfers”) to or for the benefit of Marlaina.

153. In addition, more than $7,700,000.00 of the Unaccounted for Cash was transferred during the two years prior to the Petition Date.

154. Upon information and belief, some, if not all of the Unaccounted for Cash was transferred to or for the benefit of Marlaina during the two years before the Petition Date (the “Two-Year Cash Transfers, and together with the Two-Year Identifiable Transfers, the “Two-Year Transfers”). To the extent that additional transfers become known through discovery, such additional transfers are included in the Two-Year Transfers.

155. The Two-Year Transfers were made to or for the benefit of Marlaina.

156. Each of the Two-Year Transfers were made to or for the benefit of Marlaina within two years before the Petition Date.

157. Each of the Two-Year Transfers were made with actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud one or more entities to which the Debtor was or became indebted, on or after the date that such Two-Year Transfers were made.

158. None of the Two-Year Transfers provided any benefit to the Debtor.

159. Knowing that the Debtor was insolvent, Marlaina caused the Debtor to make each of the Two-Year Transfers, to or for her benefit, with the actual intent that, by making such transfers, the Debtor would enable the recipient or immediate transferees of the Two-Year Transfers to benefit and profit at the expense of the Debtor’s creditors.

160. Each of the Two-Year Transfers hindered, delayed and defrauded the Debtor’s creditors by improperly denying them the benefit of the property transferred.

161. The Debtor (a) was insolvent on the date each of the Two-Year Transfers were made, or became insolvent as a result of the transfer; (b) was engaged in business or a transaction, or was about to engage in business or a transaction, for which any property remaining with the Debtor was an unreasonably small capital; (c) intended to incur, or believed that the Debtor would incur, debts that would be beyond the Debtor's ability to pay as such debts matured; or (d) made the transfer to or for the benefit of an insider not in the ordinary course of business.

162. For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee is entitled to avoid each of the Two-Year Transfers under 11 U.S.C. § 548 and to seek to recover them for the benefit of the Debtor's estate.

Third Cause of Action
(Avoidance of Constructive Fraudulent Conveyances
Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B)
Against Marlaina)

163. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

164. The Two-Year Transfers were transfers of an interest of the Debtor in property.

165. The Two-Year Transfers were made to or for the benefit of the Defendant.

166. The Debtor received less than reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the Two-Year Transfers.

167. The Debtor (i) was insolvent on the dates of the Two-Year Fraudulent Transfers or became insolvent as a result of the Two-Year Transfers; or (ii) was engaged in business or a transaction for which any property remaining with the Debtor was an unreasonably small capital at the time of, or as a result of the Two-Year Transfers; or (iii) intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay as such debts matured.

168. Upon information and belief, the Defendant may have received additional transfers beyond Two-Year Transfers during the two years before the Petition Date, and the Trustee reserves his right to assert claims to recover such transfers.

169. Based upon the foregoing, the Two-Year Transfers made by the Debtor to the Defendant constitute avoidable fraudulent transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 548(a), and the Trustee may recover from the Defendant, for the benefit of the Debtor's estate, the Two-Year Transfers in such amounts as may be determined at trial, that are not less than the amounts of the Two-Year Transfers, as well as any additional amounts of Two-Year Transfers as may be revealed in further discovery.

Fourth Cause of Action
(Avoidance of Fraudulent Conveyances Pursuant to
11 U.S.C. § 544(b) and §§ 273, 274, 275, 278 and 279 of the NYDCL
Against Marlaina)

170. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

171. As set forth on Exhibit A, more than $1,064,000.00 of transfers were made to or for the benefit of Marlaina within the six years prior to the Petition Date (the "Six-Year Identifiable Transfers").

172. To the extent that additional transfers become known through discovery, such additional transfers are included in the Six-Year Transfers.

173. Upon information and belief, some, if not all of the Unaccounted for Cash, as set forth on Exhibit B, was transferred to or for the benefit of Marlaina during the six years before the Petition Date (the "Six-Year Cash Transfers", and together with the Six-Year Identifiable Transfers, the "Six-Year Transfers").

174. The Six-Year Transfers did not satisfy obligations of the Debtor and the Debtor received no benefit for making the Six-Year Transfers, which were made without fair consideration.

175. The Six-Year Transfers were made to or for the benefit of Marlaina.

176. The Debtor was rendered insolvent as a result of the Six-Year Transfers.

177. The Six-Year Transfers were made or incurred without fair consideration.

178. At the time of the Six-Year Transfers, the Debtor had an unreasonably small capital remaining in its hands after each Six-Year Transfer.

179. At the time of the Six-Year Transfers, the Debtor intended or believed that it would incur debts beyond its ability to pay as they matured.

180. According to the Debtor's books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, including bank statements, the Debtor transferred the Six-Year Transfers to or for the benefit of Marlaina.

181. Upon information and belief, and based on the Debtor's books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, the Six-Year Transfers were made without adequate, or for no, consideration.

182. With the possible exception of payroll, the Debtor's books, records and documents provided to the Trustee show no evidence of an obligation of the Debtor to Marlaina related to the Six-Year Transfers.

183. Accordingly, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544(b) and sections 273, 274, 275, 278 and 279 of NYDCL, the Six-Year Transfers may be avoided and recovered for the Debtor's estate.

184. Based upon the foregoing, and pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544(b), the Trustee may recover from Marlaina, for the benefit of the Debtor's estate, the Six-Year Transfers in such amounts as may be determined at trial, that are not less than the amounts of the Six-Year Transfers, as well as any additional amounts of transfers as may be revealed in further discovery.

Fifth Cause of Action
(Avoidance of Fraudulent Conveyances Pursuant to
11 U.S.C. § 544(b) and §276 of the NYDCL
Against Marlaina)

185. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

186. The Six-Year Transfers were received by Defendant within six years of the Petition Date.

187. The Six-Year Transfers did not satisfy obligations of the Debtor and the Debtor received no benefit for making the Six-Year Transfers which were without fair consideration.

188. The Six-Year Transfers were made with actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud one or more entities to which the Debtor was or became indebted, on or after the date that the Six-Year Transfers were made.

189. Accordingly, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544(b) and § 276 of NYDCL, the Six-Year Fraudulent Transfers may be avoided and recovered to the estate of the Debtor.

190. Based upon the foregoing, and pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544(b), the Trustee may recover from Marlaina, for the benefit of the Debtor's estate, the Six-Year Transfers in such amounts as may be determined at trial, that are not less than the amounts of the Six-Year Transfers, as well as any additional amounts of transfers as may be revealed in further discovery.

Sixth Cause of Action (Reasonable Attorneys' Fees,
Pursuant to § 276-a of the NYDCL
Against Marlaina)

191. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

192. Marlaina is liable to the Trustee for the avoidance and recovery of transfers made with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud the Debtor's creditors, pursuant to §276 of the NYDCL.

193. By reason of the foregoing, Marlaina is liable to the Trustee, pursuant to §276-a of the NYDCL, as made applicable herein by 11 U.S.C. §544, for his reasonable attorneys' fees, together with interest, in bringing such actual fraudulent conveyance action.

194. Based upon the foregoing, the Trustee seeks judgment against Marlaina in the amount of his reasonable attorneys' fees, plus interest, in an amount to be determined at trial.

Seventh Cause of Action
(Avoidance and Recovery of Prepetition
Transfers Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547(b)
Against Marlaina)

195. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

196. According to the Debtor's books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, as set forth on Exhibit A, more than $370,000.00 of transfers were made to or for benefit of Marlaina (the "One-Year Identifiable Transfers") during the one-year prior to the Petition Date.

197. In addition, upon information and belief, some, if not all of the $3,800,000.00 of Unaccounted for Cash was transferred to or for the benefit of Marlaina during the one-year prior to the Petition Date (the “One-Year Cash Transfers”).

198. To the extent the One-Year Identifiable Transfers and the One-Year Cash Transfers were payments on account of antecedent debt owed by the Debtor to or for the benefit of Marlaina, such transfers are recoverable as preferential transfers.

199. In addition, $115,000.00 was paid on the Sayegh Note during the one-year prior to the Petition Date for the benefit of Marlaina (the “Sayegh Payment” and together with the One-Year Identifiable Transfers and the One-Year Cash Transfers, the “One-Year Transfers”)

200. The Debtor was insolvent on the date of each of the One-Year Transfers.

201. The Debtor is presumed to be insolvent on and during the 90 days prior to the Petition Date pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547(f).

202. The One-Year Transfers constitute transfers of an interest of the Debtor in property.

203. The One-Year Transfers were made to or for the benefit of Marlaina.

204. To the extent Marlaina asserts that any of the One-Year Transfers were on account of antecedent debt, such transfers are recoverable.

205. Marlaina’s receipt of or benefit from the One-Year Transfers enabled Marlaina to recover more than she would have recovered in this Chapter 7 proceeding in the absence of the One-Year Transfers.

206. Marlaina may have received additional transfers during the preference period, and the Trustee reserves his right to assert claims to recover such additional transfers.

207. Based upon the foregoing, the One-Year Transfers made by the Debtor to or for the benefit of Marlaina constitute avoidable One-Year Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §

547, and the Trustee may recover from Marlaina, for the benefit of the Debtor's estate, the One-Year Transfers in such amounts as may be determined at trial, as well as any additional amounts of transfers as may be revealed in further discovery.

Eighth Cause of Action
(Avoidance and Recovery of Post-Petition
Transfers Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 549(a)
Against Marlaina)

208. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

209. As more particularly described on Exhibit A attached hereto, and incorporated herein, between the period of April 29, 2016 and February 28, 2017, the Debtor made transfers in the amount of $370,000.00 (the "Identifiable Post-Petition Transfers") to or for the benefit of Marlaina.

210. In addition, more than $2,400,000.00 of the Unaccounted for Cash was transferred after the Petition Date, some, if not all of which was transferred to or for the benefit of Marlaina (the "Post-Petition Cash Transfers", and together with the Identifiable Post-Petition Transfers, the "Post-Petition Transfers").

211. The Post-Petition Transfers were made by the Debtor to or for the benefit for Marlaina after the Petition Date.

212. The Post-Petition Transfers were not authorized to be made under the Bankruptcy Code.

213. To the extent the Post-Petition Transfers were payroll expenses authorized by the Court, such payments presume services were to be provided to the Debtor.

214. As set forth above, Marlaina's salary increased substantially after the Petition Date without Court authorization.

215. According to the Debtor's monthly operating reports, $757,327.00 in payroll was paid to Marlaina and her mother in the two months before the Debtor's asset sale.

216. Upon information and belief, and based off of a review of the Debtor's books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, the Marlaina Post-Petition Transfers did not benefit the Debtor and to the extent any benefit was provided, such benefit was not in the amounts transferred.

217. Marlaina permitted the Debtor's books and records to be improperly, maintained inhibiting the Trustee's ability to review and analyze the Marlaina Post-Petition Transfers without incurring significant expense and time. To the extent additional transfers to or for the benefit of Marlaina become known to the Trustee, such additional transfers are included in the Marlaina Post-Petition Transfers the Trustee seeks to avoid and recover.

218. Based upon the foregoing, the Trustee is entitled to an order and judgment against Marlaina pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 549 avoiding the Post-Petition Transfers to Marlaina that occurred after the Petition Date and were not authorized by the Bankruptcy Code or by the Court, and the Trustee may recover from Marlaina, for the benefit of the Debtor's estate, the Marlaina Post-Petition Transfers in such amounts as may be determined at trial, that are not less than the amounts of the Marlaina Post-Petition Transfers, as well as any additional amounts of post-petition transfers as may be revealed in further discovery.

Ninth Cause of Action
(Avoidance and Recovery of Post-Petition
Transfers Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 549(a)
Against Phoenix)

219. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

220. As more particularly described in Exhibit C attached hereto and as incorporated herein, the Debtor made the Phoenix Transfers to or for the benefit of Phoenix.

221. The Phoenix Transfers were made by the Debtor to or for the benefit of Phoenix after the Petition Date.

222. The Phoenix Transfers were not authorized to be made under the Bankruptcy Code.

223. Upon information and belief, and based off of a review of the Debtor's books, records and documents, including pay stubs, certain of the Phoenix Transfers were for payroll obligations that were not an obligation of the Debtor.

224. Upon information and belief, and based off of a review of the Debtor's books, records and documents provided to the Trustee, no invoices for the Phoenix Transfers exist and the Phoenix Transfers were not for the benefit of the Debtor.

225. Upon information and belief, not less than $74,219.00 was transferred to or for the benefit of Phoenix on account of Phoenix payroll and vendor obligations that were not Debtor obligations. Based upon the foregoing, the Trustee is entitled to an order and judgment against Phoenix pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 549 avoiding any of the post-petition transfers for the benefit of Phoenix that occurred after the Petition Date and were not authorized by the Bankruptcy Code or by the Court, and the Trustee may recover from Phoenix, for the benefit of the Debtor's estate, the Phoenix Transfers in such amounts as may be determined at trial, that are not less than the amounts of the Phoenix Transfers as identified on the schedule attached hereto as Exhibit C, as well as any additional amounts of post-petition transfers as may be revealed in further discovery.

Tenth Cause of Action
(Recovery of Transfers Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550
Against Marlaina and Phoenix)

226. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

227. Upon information and belief, the Defendants were either the initial or subsequent transferee of the transfers set forth above, and/or the party for whom the transfers were intended.

228. Based upon the foregoing, the Defendants are obligated to return the transfers set forth above to the Trustee pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550.

Eleventh Cause of Action
(Conversion Against Marlaina)

229. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

230. The Debtor had a possessory right and interest to its property, including but not limited to cash, cash equivalents, or other property.

231. Marlaina converted the Debtor's property by taking the Debtor's cash, having the Debtor's receivables paid to her directly, making transfers to friends and family and otherwise overpaying herself for limited, if any, services provided.

232. The Debtor and its creditors were deprived of the use of the Debtor's rights and property, including the amounts paid for Marlaina's personal expenses and accounts receivable directed by Marlaina to be paid to Phoenix.

233. As a direct and proximate result of this conduct, the Debtor and its creditors have not had the use or benefit of the Debtor's rights and property.

234. By reason of the above, the Trustee is entitled to an award of compensatory damages, in an amount to be determined at trial.

235. The Trustee is entitled to judgment and an order directing Marlaina to return to the Debtor, the property or the value thereof, of each converted right or property.

236. Based upon the foregoing, Marlaina is liable to the Trustee for compensatory damages, special damages and consequential damages to be determined at trial, along with an award of pre-judgment interest and costs, and for such other relief and this Court may deem just and proper.

Twelfth Cause of Action
(Conversion Against Phoenix)

237. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

238. The Debtor had a possessory right and interest to its property, including but not limited to cash, cash equivalents, or other property.

239. As set forth on Exhibit C, Phoenix converted the Debtor's property by having the Debtor pay Phoenix's expenses and soliciting and accepting payments on account of the Debtor's accounts receivable.

240. The Debtor and its creditors were deprived of the use of the Debtor's rights and property, including the amounts received by Phoenix on account of the Debtor's accounts receivable.

241. As a direct and proximate result of this conduct, the Debtor and its creditors have not had the use or benefit of the Debtor's rights and property.

242. By reason of the above, the Trustee is entitled to an award of compensatory damages, in an amount to be determined at trial.

243. The Trustee is entitled to judgment and an order directing Phoenix to return to the Debtor the property, or the value thereof, of each converted right or property.

244. Based upon the foregoing, Phoenix is liable to the Trustee for compensatory damages, special damages and consequential damages to be determined at trial, along with an award of pre-judgment interest and costs, and for such other relief and this Court may deem just and proper.

Thirteenth Cause of Action
(Turnover of Property of the Estate
Against Marlaina and Phoenix)

245. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

246. The Defendants are in possession, custody or control of property, subject to the ownership of the Debtor, that the Trustee may use, sell or lease under 11 U.S.C. § 363.

247. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363, the Defendants have an obligation to deliver to the Debtor, an account for all the Debtor's property in each of their possession, custody or control, including any cash or goods that were purchased by the Debtor.

248. The Defendants are liable to the Trustee for the return of all the Debtor's property in their respective possession, custody or control, or of the value of that property.

249. The Defendants are required to deliver to the Trustee, and to provide the Trustee with an accounting of, all of the Debtor's property in their respective possession, custody or control, or of the value of that property.

250. Based upon the foregoing, the Trustee is entitled to an order directing the Defendants to deliver to the Trustee, and to provide the Trustee with an accounting of, all of the Debtor's property in their possession, custody or control, or the value of that property.

Fourteenth Cause of Action (Unjust Enrichment Against Marlaina and Phoenix)

251. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

252. Unjust enrichment exists when (1) a defendant benefits; (2) at another party's expense; and (3) equity and good conscience require restitution.

253. The benefits that the Defendants received from the Debtor had a value for which the Defendants did not properly compensate the Debtor.

254. The Debtor did not receive any, or adequate, consideration in exchange for the Transfers.

255. Upon information and belief, in contrast, each Defendant unfairly benefitted by receiving and retaining the Transfers and have been unjustly enriched, thereby resulting in the Debtor denying amounts rightfully due to other creditors.

256. For the foregoing reasons, each Defendant is liable to the Trustee for the return of their respective transfers or for the value of transfers as well as the value of corporate opportunities usurped from the Debtor.

Fifteenth Cause of Action
(Corporate Waste Against Marlaina)

257. The Trustee repeats and realleges the allegations in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein.

258. Marlaina had the duty to the Debtor to preserve and protect its assets from undue waste or loss and to maximize its long-term financial health.

259. By virtue of her commissions and omissions as stated herein, the Marlaina committed waste of the Debtor's corporate assets and is required to account therefor.

260. Marlaina's breaches of duties and failures described herein resulted in damages to the Debtor's estate and creditors.

261. For the foregoing reasons, the Trustee is entitled to seek to recover from Marlaina for the benefit of the Debtor's estate such sum as represents not less than the value of all allowed claims plus administrative expenses as may be allowed herein.

Sixteenth Cause of Action
(Disallowance of Claims
Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(d)
Against Marlaina)

262. Marlaina is an individual from which property is recoverable under 11 U.S.C. § 550.

263. Marlaina was the initial transferee of certain of the transfers described above, or the person for whose benefit such transfers were made.

264. Marlaina has not paid to the Trustee, or previously to the Debtor, the amount of such transfers and have not turned over to the Trustee, or previously to the Debtor, the property for which Marlaina is liable under 11 U.S.C. § 550.

265. Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550, any and all claims of each of the Defendants or any assignee of the Defendants against the Debtor's estate must be disallowed until such time as each Defendant pays to the Trustee the respective amounts sought herein.

266. Based upon the foregoing, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 502(d), the Trustee is entitled to entry of judgment disallowing, barring and expunging any claims that the Defendants may hold against the Debtor or its estate.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Trustee requests that this Court enter its judgment against the Defendant as follows:

A. Awarding damages against Marlaina pursuant to §§ 715 and 720 of the NYBCL for breaches of duties, in such sum as represents not less than $24,234,193.65, the value of all allowed claims plus administrative expenses as may be allowed herein;

B. Avoiding the Marlaina Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A);

C. Avoiding the Marlaina Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B);

D. Avoiding the Marlaina Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544(b) and §§ 273, 274, 275, 278 and 279 of the NYDCL;

E. Avoiding the Marlaina Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 544(b) and § 276 of the NYDCL;

F. Awarding attorneys' fees to the Trustee pursuant to § 276-a of the NYDCL;

G. Avoiding the Marlaina Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 547(b);

H. Avoiding the Marlaina Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 549(a);

I. Avoiding the Phoenix Transfers pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 549(a);

J. Ordering Marlaina to pay to the Trustee an amount not less than $13,270,506.54, the sum of the Marlaina Transfers, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

K. Ordering Phoenix to pay to the Trustee an amount not less than $74,219.00, the sum of the Phoenix Transfers, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 550;

L. Ordering Marlaina to pay to the Trustee for compensatory damages, special damages and consequential damages to be determined at trial as a result of her conversion;

M. Ordering Phoenix to pay to the Trustee for compensatory damages, special damages and consequential damages to be determined at trial as a result of its conversion;

N. Ordering Marlaina and Phoenix to turnover and deliver to the Trustee, and to provide the Trustee with all of property belonging to the Debtor's estate in their possession, custody or control, or the value of that property;

O. Awarding the Trustee the return of each Transfer received, or of which it received the benefit in the amount of the value of that Transfer by which Marlaina or Phoenix were unjustly enriched;

P. Awarding damages against Marlaina, on account of corporate waste, such sum as represents not less than the value of all allowed claims plus administrative expenses as may be allowed herein;

Q. Disallowing any and all claims of claims of Marlaina until such time she pays to the Trustee all amounts sought herein;

R. Awarding pre-judgment interest as the maximum legal rate running from the date of the Trustee's first demand to return the Transfers until the date judgment is entered against the Defendants;

S. Awarding post-judgment interest at the maximum legal rate from and after the date judgment is entered until payment thereof;

T. Awarding attorneys' fees;

U. Requiring each Defendant to pay the amount of the judgment forthwith;

and

V. Granting the Trustee such further and additional relief as the Court deems proper.
